

Dr. Kathryn J. Hannah Lecture Series:

The Nursing Informatics Journey and the Future

Plan to attend the Dr. Kathryn J. Hannah Lecture in Halifax on Tuesday, September 20, 2016, 3:00-5:00pm. The lecture is also available through a webinar broadcast (details to follow).

The Dr. Kathryn J. Hannah Lecture Series is presented in support of a new national nursing informatics scholarship inspired by Dr. Hannah and established in partnership between the Canadian Nursing informatics community and the Canadian Nurses Foundation.

Admission is free. Donations to the Dr. Kathryn J. Hannah Scholarship will be gratefully accepted. Donations of $20 or more are eligible for a charitable tax receipt. Light refreshments will be available after the presentation.

Speaker:

Dr. Hannah C.M., PhD, RN is Canada's first Nurse Informatician and has made foundational changes to the practice of nursing and health care nationally and internationally through education, scholarship, transforming initiatives like C--HOBIC, and standards development leadership. In 2015, Dr. Hannah received the Canadian Health Informatics Award (CHIA) for Leadership from COACH, (Canada's Health Informatics Association) and ITAC (Information Technology Association of Canada). Also in 2015, Dr. Hannah was appointed as a Member of the Order of Canada for her lifetime achievements in Nursing and health informatics.

Location:

Dalhousie University
Theatre C, Sir Charles Tupper
Medical Building
5830 College St., Halifax, Nova Scotia

RSVP by:

Friday, September 16, 2016

Please RSVP to Jocelyn LeClerc – Jocelyn.leclerc@dal.ca and indicate if you will be attending in person or via webinar broadcast (details to follow).

Sincere thanks to our event sponsors:

